BED SPACE ALLOCATION:

Fresh undergraduates and final year students will request for Bed Space Allocation placement directly on the e-portal subject to clearance at the Admissions Office (fresh students only) and payment of appropriate fees including accommodation. Candidates will be required to print 3 copies of Bed Space Clearance Forms from the e-portal which must be duly signed by the student and the Hall warden.

Students are required to keep one of the completed Bed Space Allocation Forms, submit one to the Director, Student Affairs and the last copy to the Hall Warden to qualify you to OCCUPY the bed space allocated. Please note that failure to submit the Bed Space Clearance Form automatically disqualifies your Bed Space Allocation.

Apart from fresh undergraduate students, final year students are also given priority for accommodation. Other spaces available will be balloted for. The list of those that are allocated spaces based on the usual allocation criteria will be available at Obafemi Awolowo University e-portal before 17th December, 2009.

On behalf of the University administration, we wish all students a wonderful, peaceful and rewarding 2008/2009 session.
