 2. All First Degree Graduands: N20,000.00
 3. Higher Degree Graduands: N25,000.00
- C. Upon registration, graduands are to print out the following documents: (a) proof of payment of prescribed fees; and (b) two electronic invitation cards indicating the names of their designated guests.
- D. The proof of payment of prescribed fees (in duplicate) will be required to collect academic gowns and the Order of Proceedings from their respective Faculty/College Secretaries between 8.00a.m. and 4.00p.m. on the day preceding the conferment of degrees in their disciplines.
- E. Graduands should assemble at the Faculty of Science (White House) Foyer on their respective Convocation days not later than 8.00a.m. All graduands must be fully robed and seated in the places allocated to them at the Convocation venue by 9.30a.m. before the commencement of the Official Processions.
- F. Graduands are required to return the academic gowns issued to them to their respective Faculty Secretaries not later than 4.00 p.m. on the convocation day, failure of which shall attract a fine of ₦10,000.00 per day, in the first instance, and subsequently ₦2,000.00 for each day of default.
- G. In view of the challenges imposed by COVID-19, only graduands, the Official University Procession and Invited Dignitaries will be allowed into the Convocation Venue.
- H. We encourage elderly parents and guardians of our graduands to consider watching the entire convocation proceedings online. Those who wish to attend shall only be ushered into designated viewing halls. In view of the limited spaces available, entrance into the viewing halls shall be strictly on first come, first served basis.

- I. In strict compliance with Covid-19 protocols, all graduands and guests must wear face masks, observe physical and social distancing and bring along miniature hand sanitisers for personal use.
- J. All vehicles entering into the University Campus will be required to pay the sum of Five hundred naira (₦500.00) per day and will be given a security tally, which must be returned to the designated Security personnel at the Posts when exiting the Campus. A misplaced tally will attract a fine. Parking of vehicles will be at designated sites as indiscriminate parking will attract a fine.

Graduands are advised to note and adhere strictly to the dates and time scheduled for the ceremonies.

Graduands should note that movement into, and out, of the hall during the ceremony, or before the end of the ceremony will not be allowed.

Graduands will also be required to show evidence of payment of the Convocation charges when collecting their certificates.

We congratulate all our graduands, their parents and guardians, and wish them safe journey to and from Ile-Ife.
