LATEST RELEASE ON ACCOMMODATION
PROCEDURE FOR CLAIMING BED SPACE ALLOCATED

The following are the important steps that every student offered a bed space in the Hall of Residence is to take.

1. Read and understand the “Basic Rules and Regulations for Accommodation in the Halls of Residence”
2. Print and Sign the document (indicated in no. 1 above) and make three copies.
3. Bring the completed copies with attached bed space clearance to the officer in Division of Student Affairs.
4. Take a certified signed copy of the document to the Hall Warden for appropriate bed space allocation.

NOTE:

- (i) No student is allowed to jump this protocol
- (ii) Any student found to have sold or bought bed space will be appropriately sanctioned.
- (iii) No student is allowed to secure bed space by proxy
- (iv) Any student found in any room without following the due process will automatically lose the bed space.
- (v) New student need not to look for their Head of Department for attestation instead the Division of Student Affairs will stand in for that purpose.
- (vi) Coming into Halls of Residence by new students will be in two streams to avoid congestion and disorderliness.

April 29: Stream 1 - Arts, Social Sciences, Law, Administration and Education

April 30: Stream 2 – Basic Medical Sciences, Dentistry, Sciences, Pharmacy, Technology, Agriculture, Environmental Design and Management.

Parents are to take note of this arrangement. Wishing you safe journey and happy resumption.
